Pradhan dedicates gas based crematorium

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE

BHUBANESWAR, 18 AUGUST

Union Minister Dharmendra Pradhan dedicated the first gas based crematorium in Bhubaneswar set up GAIL India. GAIL will construct three such crematorium (2 in Bhubaneswar and one in Cuttack) at an estimated cost of Rs 16 crore, he said adding that operation and maintenance will be done by the civic bodies. Addressing a gathering, Pradhan said Odisha has received huge amount of funds from the central government during the past nine years. The PM is committed to Purvodaya and he walks the talk, stated Pradhan.

Over Rs 2 lakh crore has been invested in Paradip region for the oil refinery and petro-chemical complex as well as the gas pipeline.

It is due to this that today several households in Bhubaneswar and Cuttack are availing gas through pipelines, he said.

He hoped that the state BJD will rise above party lines and provide land in urban areas like slums to help the dwellers get a pucca house under the PMAY.
